Woman Patient In Hospital Is Beaten By Intruder, Dies

Deputy Sheriff Rose is making an investigation of conditions at the Mitamura hospital, a private institution, which permitted a drunken man to enter upon the premises and beat a woman patient just recovering from an operation so severely that she died Sunday morning as a result. It is charged, of the injuries received.

The alleged assault occurred last Thursday night and was perpetrated by Kapapio, a drunken Hawaiian boy, who was permitted to run riot about the place for three-quarters of an hour and was not arrested until he had brutally beaten Mrs. Maria Rosa, who had given birth to a child six hours before.

Attacks Two Girls.

It was shortly after eight o'clock when Kapapio, unchallenged, staggered into the building, which is a private hospital under Japanese management. He immediately sought out Helen Lio, a girl friend of his who is in a convalescent condition.

He is alleged to have made himself obnoxious to her and when she told him to leave, he became abusive and slapped her several times across the face. She fled and the native staggered after her as rapidly as his intoxicated condition would permit.

Meanwhile Helen had managed to hide and the boy encountered Louise, the daughter of Mrs. Maria Rosa. The native had asked her where the Lio girl had fled and when she made a negative reply, he struck her across the face. She ran away and then Kapapio caught sight of Mrs. Rosa.

Drags Her from Bed.

He made the same inquiry of Mrs. Rosa and when he received the answer that she didn't know, he dragged her from the bed and started to beat her. She screamed with pain and Manuel Rosa, the husband, entered, and drove the boy from the room. But the native returned immediately and managed to strike Mrs. Rosa another vicious blow before he was subdued by the husband.

At this juncture, the hospital authorities stepped in and had Kapapio arrested. He was locked up at the police station late Thursday night and was held pending Mrs. Rosa's recovery. The woman died Sunday morning and the inquest will be held this morning.

Dr. T. Mitamura, proprietor of the hospital, will be summoned to make an explanation as to why no precautions are taken at the hospital to prevent the patients from being attacked by irresponsible outsiders.

ADMIRAL HERE TO INSPECT

If the bill goes through I will ask the commandant here to appoint such a board, and the questions can be decided."

Admiral Stanford is well satisfied with the progress of the Pearl Harbor work from a legislative standpoint.

"The work in Hawaii is getting an absolutely square deal in Washington," he said. "I think that the committee members of both houses, and Congress as a whole, realizes the importance of naval development in the Pacific, and that they consider our estimates and requests as just and reasonable. It is not the Pearl Harbor items that is holding up the appropriation bill."

President S. G. Hinds, of the San Francisco Bridge Co., contractors for the drydock, also arrived this morning. He talked the situation over with Admiral Stanford on the trip down, and undoubtedly there will be several conferences as to drydock construction within the next few weeks.

To Examine Work.

The work of pouring concrete into the second section of the drydock, which was to have been started yesterday, has been put off until tomorrow, so that both the "Y and D" chief and Mr. Hinds can be on the spot when the operation is resumed after the long delay.

Admiral Stanford passed through Honolulu in 1899 on his way to the Philippines, but has never made an extended stay here, and has never seen Pearl Harbor. His appearance bears out his high reputation for efficiency minus red tape. He was entitled to the full honors of flag rank when he called at the naval station this morning, but specially requested that they be omitted. Admiral Stanford is alone on his present trip, having left his family on the coast. He is staying at the Moana.

ANSWER TO CHARGES IN FEDERAL COURT

Gordon Roberts, arrested several days ago by federal officers on a charge of "white slavery" was arraigned this morning. Attorney Leon Straus was appointed his counsel and defendant is given until Thursday morning to enter plea, his bond meantime having been set at $1000.

Sunaro and Okata, indicted also by the federal grand jury, on a charge of conducting an illicit distillery, both entered a plea of guilty. They will be sentenced Thursday.

James F. Fisher, accused of aiding in the smuggling of opium, was arraigned and given until Thursday to enter plea. Attorney Straus was appointed counsel for the defendant.

William Joseph Hokulua pleaded guilty to the indictment for bigamy and will be sentenced Thursday. Mary Williams and John Alapai, both indicted by the federal grand jury last week, were found to be serving sentence in the county jail on other charges. Bench warrants will be issued for them upon their discharge from jail at the completion of the present terms, and they will then be arraigned on the federal jury indictments.

The Inter-Island steamer W. G. Hall will be dispatched for Kauai ports this evening after having been discharged of a shipment of sugar.

CAN'T TIP LID ON LOCAL FRUIT

California Won't Allow Passengers to Take Fruits Past Quarantine

H. A. Weinland, who represents California here in the campaign against the fruit-fly pest, said this morning that much confusion seems to exist as regards the rights of passengers to take fruit to the coast with them.

"Many seem to think that because certain fruits can be taken aboard the steamer for consumption while the passengers are making the voyage to San Francisco, they should be allowed to take these fruits into California," he said. "As a matter of fact and of regulation, none of the fruits against which the quarantine has been declared can be taken into California, not as baggage, nor with personal handling. Alligator pears, for instance, are a source of much confusion. We allow them to be taken aboard the steamer if they are not infected. But in no case can they be taken into San Francisco."

"Every possible consideration is given passengers, but California has to be strict on this point."

Following is a list of fruit and vegetables attacked by fruit flies in the Hawaiian Islands and which are denied admittance into California: Strawberry guavas, alligator pears, mango, guavas, oranges, Chinese plums, papaya, Chinese ink berry, kamani seeds, prickly pear, loquat, persimmons, kumquat, eugenia, mock orange, damson plums, carambolas, string beans, peach, Chinese orange, green peppers, cucumbers, tomatoes, grapes, squash, figs, rose apple, star apple, mountain apple, coffee berries, wild guava, grapefruit, Natal plum, limes, melons.

"All of the foregoing fruits and vegetables from all Hawaiian ports are contraband, and, together with any other forms of fruit or vegetables found infested with fruit flies, will be confiscated and destroyed wherever found in California. All persons attempting to land any of these fruits or vegetables in California, without first notifying the quarantine officers, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. (Signed) A. J. COOK, State Commissioner of Horticulture."

There is a fine of $500 and imprisonment for breaking this law.

DR. SUN'S HEIR NOW A BENEDICT

Sun Fo and Miss Kai Chun of Honolulu Married at Moanalua

Attended only by a few personal friends, Sun Fo, eldest son and heir of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first president of China, and Miss Kai Chun of Honolulu were married at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of F. W. Damon, with Dr. Doremus Scudder officiating.

Among the friends of the contracting persons present were Mr. and Mrs. Chang Chau, C. K. Al and Ho Fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Sun Fo, accompanied by the two sisters of Sun Fo, will sail for San Francisco this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Sun Fo will re-enter the University of California and Mrs. Sun Fo will probably enter a girl's school in San Francisco with her husband's sisters.

The bride is a native of Honolulu and her parents reside here. She is but 16 years old.

It was originally planned for Miss Chun to go to the coast with Sun Fo and his sisters and attend school there until Sun Fo finished his college course when they were to be married. But the plans were changed at the last moment, when Sun Fo secured permission from his father to be married at once.

With his sisters, Sun Fo arrived here a week ago by the Shinyo Maru and they have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chang Chau at the latter's pretty home in Kauluwela lane.

FINDS CLIENT INDICTED.

When Attorney Rowlands appeared before Justice Monsarrat this morning to defend D. K. Kama, charged with embezzling $100 from the Hawaiian Order of Longshoremen, he found that the man had been taken before the grand jury and indicted in the interim between last Thursday and today.

A delegation of Harvard men greeted Dr. Elliot from the Federal customs launch as the liner Siberia from the Orient, bearing the distinguished passenger anchored off quarantine this morning.
